BREED THEATER.

A picture of unusual interest and erit is on the big bill at the Breed ir the balence of this week, and is of an educational and scenec character. It is an Edisen film, which is a suffi-cient guarantee of its excellence in reference to detail, perfect photography and the like. It is entitled The Panama Canal in 1911n and inasmuch as the canal will be opened in 1915, the total cost being between four and five hundred million dollars, there is the steatest possible interest manifested in this moneter (in Canadam details) this monster film. Countless details are brought to the attention of the spectator, among which is a machine taking the place of four hundred men, this machine lifting entire lengths of railroads, ties and all, and placing it at the desired new point.

The Twin Towers is a superbly strong picture of the time of the French revolution, and shows the danger lurking in fifteen minutes of this trying period, the old town clock keep-ing accurate time as the picture pro-Mr. Calkins and Miss Laws offer the best in the illustrated song line, meet-ing with great success.

BASS CLEF CONCERT TONIGHT.

The advance sale of tickets for the Bass Clef concert has been very grati-fying. The associate membership of the club has nearly doubled, and the concert is awaited with a very wide-spread interest. The singers are full of enthusiasm, and anything short of 'standing room only' will be a disap-uointment to them. The programme for the evening follows:

- I. Cossack War Song, Horado Parker
- 2. Polonaise from Mignon, Ambrose Thomas

Tickets may be gotten at Davis' book store during the day and at the door of Stater hall previous to the concert.

THAT LITTLE CHAP OF MINE

To feel his little hand in mine, so clinging and so warm.
To know he thinks me strong enough to keep him safe from harm.
To see his simple faith, in all that I can say or do.
It sort o shames a fellow, but it makes him better, too.
And I'm trying hard to be the man he fancies me to be.
Because I have this chap at home who thinks the world of me.

I would not disappoint his trust for anything on earth,

Now let him know how little I jes' naturally am worth,

But after all its easier that brighter road to climb.

With the little hand behind me, to push me all the time.

And I recken I'm a better man than what I used to be.

Because I have this chap at heme who things the world of me.
